

BEYOND THE HUMAN EXPERIENCE

Name _____

An Eliot Schrefer Reading Challenge

Eliot Schrefer loves reading a point of view that isn't human because it "reminds us that we're not the only creatures worth caring about." With a background in science and Animal Studies, Eliot knows the animal subjects of his books well. With this challenge, he encourages us to explore another animal's consciousness, whether they are anthropomorphized or radically real.

Enjoy books for younger kids to adults and mark them off as you read!
